

General: Who are Note Perfect?

Note Perfect have been publishing training aids for choral singers since 2001, at www.noteperfect.net. In 2008 Note Perfect launched the download site www.note-perfect.com. Note Perfect is committed to providing resources for musicians and choirs. The Training aids take considerable time to prepare, and when complete we offer these to individuals and choirs at an affordable price.

We know that a massive amount of time can be consumed learning the notes, of a particular work, but by continual listening to the notes, learning them in advance, you can prepare yourself or your choir to sing a part competently from the very start; rehearsal time can effectively be better utilised for working on dynamics and presentation.
